Adopt-A-Park Program Group Registration Form

The City of Cambridge has many local parks and green spaces throughout our community. The Adopt-A-Park program is a fun, educational program that is a great opportunity for individuals, families, businesses, organizations, church groups, youth clubs, or schools to be involved and contribute to their community and help maintain our beautiful parks and green space.

Program Rules and Guidelines

- A minimum of a one-season commitment is required
- Season runs April 1 through October 31
- Clean-up should occur at least three times per season: spring, mid-summer, and fall
- All participants under the age of 18 must have adult supervision at all times
- Coordinate clean up days with the city staff at least two business days in advance
- The city will provide trash bags and will dispose of filled bags placed in the pre-designated area
- Any proposed park improvements or other design plans must be approved and authorized by the City Council before work is done
- Each participant and volunteer must sign and turn in the waiver form prior to any activity begins. If a volunteer is a minor, they must provide a Parental Release Form
